The Smoke on the Beach BBQ competition, in conjunction with the Beach Boogie & BBQ Festival, is sanctioned by the Kansas City Barbeque Society, Southern BBQ Network and Omar Shrine Center. This event is also the Official Barbeque Championship in South Carolina. Judging for both events starts on Saturday morning and we will be using the blind judging technique.

The BBQ contest consists of 2 divisions and you will be required to enter all categories in each division in order to qualify for the Grand Championship award in those separate Divisions. Categories are listed above for each division.

Butts will be supplied to those competing in the SBN Division.

Contestants must provide their own ribs in the SBN division. All entries must be prepared onsite. The Anything Butt contest is held on Friday night however, the sauce will be judged on Saturday afternoon. Anything Butt Entries may include pork as an ingredient, but not the main staple in the dish and must be prepared on site. No desserts are allowed in the Anything Butt category. Separate categories for sauce will also be judged.
